

DAILY TRIUMPH

MONDAY 25 JANUARY

ATTENTION PREVENTS AFFLICTIONS

Psalm 25:15 KJVS

[15] Mine eyes are ever toward the Lord ; for he shall pluck my feet out of the net.

Your upward attention will determine your downward freedom. Who you look up to will affect what can hold you down. Every time you desire great strides on earth, let your focus be empowerment from on high. There wouldn't be lockdown on earth if there is upsurge of power from heaven. The afflictions here on earth can't cancel the redemption provision already made in Christ for you. Many they can be but surely you will come out of them all.

Psalm 34:19 KJVS

[19] Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the Lord delivereth him out of them all.

The intention of the devil is to keep your gaze on the problems and forget the promises in His word. You look up to God when you settle in the word and kneel down in prayer before Him. It is not face up but faith up. Help is not on the hills but in God.

Psalm 121:1-2 Voice

[1] I look up at the vast size of the mountains- from where will my help come in times of trouble? [2] The Eternal Creator of heaven and earth and these mountains will send the help I need.

You are breaking out of every chainsaw holding you back from progress in Jesus name. Your feet shall be released from the traps set against you. The help you need out of that mess is delivered to you right now.

This is your day!

Apst. Tayo Omoniyi

DACC Worldwide.